Incident Summary: On November 27, 2023, Columbus Police Officers responded to the 200 block of North 22nd Street on a report of an Instagram post, that showed two students possessing firearms on school grounds. The caller stated that the two students were identified and brought into the school's office. While in the office, school officials recovered a concealed unloaded firearm from the 12 year old female student and a concealed BB gun, which looked like a real firearm, from the 13 year old male. Both students were charged and slated at Franklin County Juvenile Detention Center.
